

The Call of the Rapids

*I am the Rapids—A madcap Sprite.
I laugh and sing—I bound and splash.
My merriment shines in the whirling lines
Of the water's foam and crash.*

*I race the boats as they sweep along
Through my waves in swift career.
I call to the mortals who enter my portals
And bid them come back each year.*

AND they will come each year! Those who once "shoot" these far-famed Rapids are never content with that one thrilling experience. Inevitably they return for another run through that marvelous waterway which casts a spell over all who traverse its many miles of scenic splendor. Come once—and you will want to repeat each year the trip from

"Niagara to the Sea"

*The boats that make this journey are luxury ships
—splendidly appointed, celebrated for their cuisine.*

They take you from Lewiston (Niagara Falls) across Lake Ontario to Toronto—thence through the 1000 Islands (America's Venice). Then comes the descent of the Long Sault, the Lachine and other famous Rapids. Montreal is visited, then quaint old Quebec with its miracle working shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupré. A few miles down the River are Murray Bay and Tadousac, summer resorts singularly favored by Nature and made doubly attractive by their splendid hotels. Then the climax, "the famous Saguenay Canyon," with its stupendous Capes "Trinity" and "Eternity"—higher than Gibraltar.
